

Westpac – How to download Bank Statements into QIF format on an iPhone using Desktop Banking

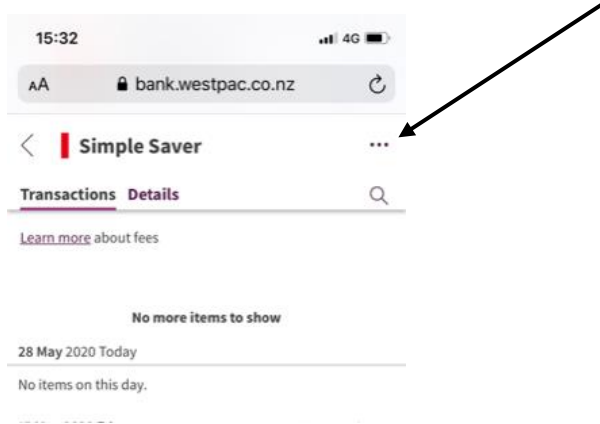

Step 1 – Open your web browser and go to Westpac’s Website – login using your Desktop internet banking details

Step 2 – Click on the account your wages are paid into

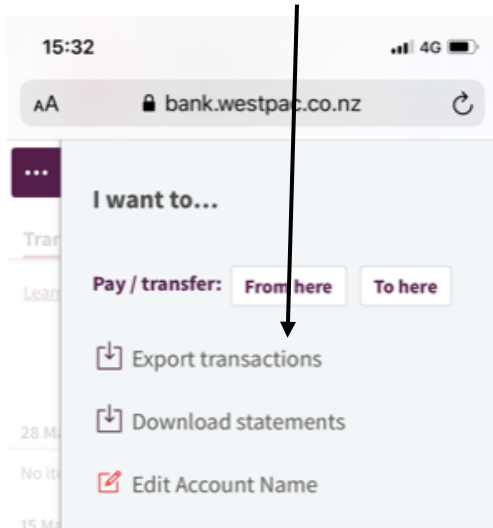

Please note: You will need to repeat these steps to download bank statements if you have more spending/payments in different accounts.

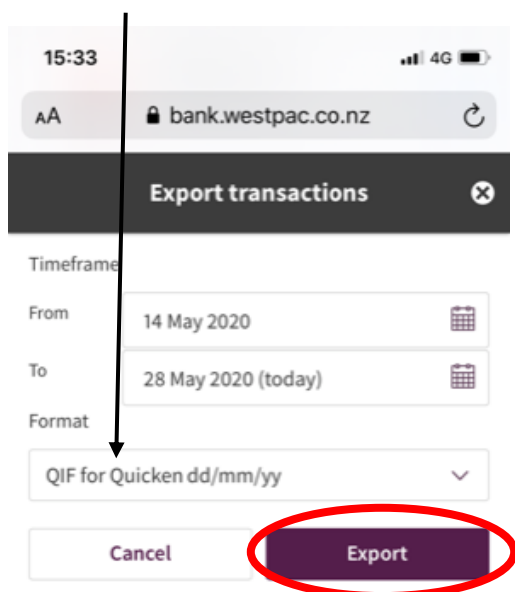

Step 3 – Click on menu buttons in the top right-hand corner

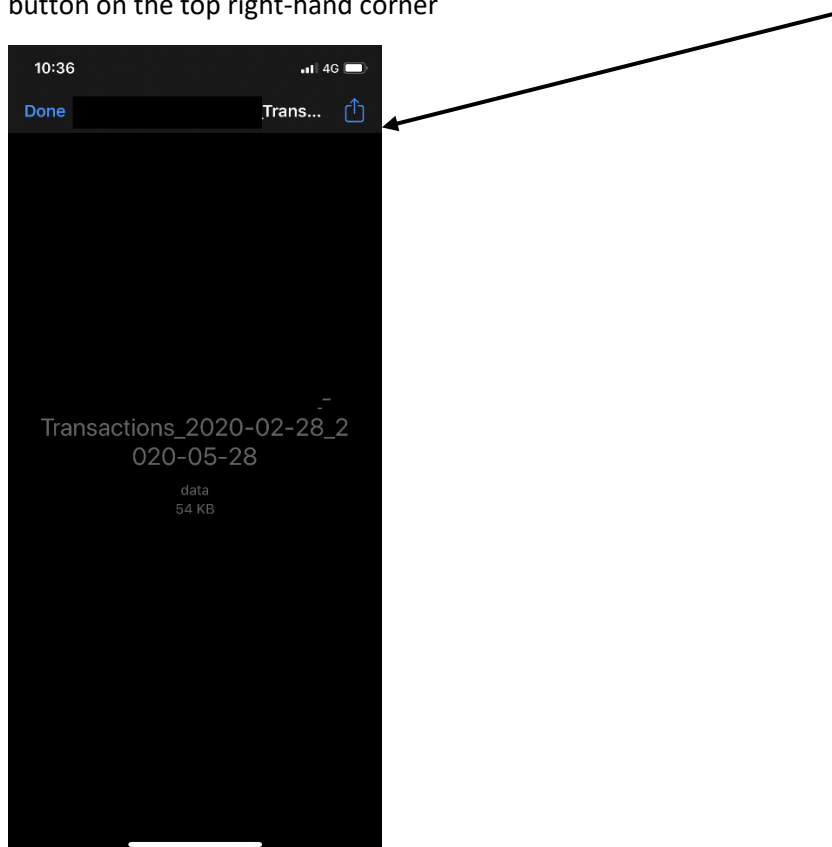

Step 4 – Then click on export transactions

Step 5 - Please change the date range to include the last 90 days and change the Format type to QIF for Quicken dd/mm/yyyy. Once you have done this, click Export

Step 6 - The file will download into the top right hand corner. Click on the arrow in the top right hand corner and open the file. You will be presented with a screen that looks like this. Click the button on the top right-hand corner

Step 7 – Click Mail (if you don't use Mail, slide across to attach to apps such as Gmail, Outlook etc). This will attach the file to an email. You can enter the recipient or "To" as loans@savemybacon.co.nz. Click send, and this will send us a copy of your bank statements in the format required.

If you are having any issues completing this, please call us on 0800 272 836 option 1 and one of our Online Lending Specialists will help talk you through it over the phone!
